

October, the Halloween season, and it just wouldn't be complete without watching the beloved animated classic It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown because it perfectly captures the spirit of the season. It's a timeless classic with one universal theme that runs through the film, which makes it so special.

The storyline of It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown may seem deceptively simple, with a child believing in the existence of The Great Pumpkin, who supposedly emerges from a pumpkin patch to deliver toys to good children around the world. Linus, the central character in the story, whole-heartedly believes that The Great Pumpkin is real and sets out to wait for the mythical figure in a local pumpkin patch, forsaking the typical Halloween trick-or-treating with his friends.

Linus's unwavering faith in The Great Pumpkin is at the heart of this classic tale. As the night progresses, Linus falls asleep in the patch, but the elusive Great Pumpkin never appears. He is eventually taken home by his older sister, Lucy, and tucked into bed.

The film's one secret, however, isn't about the existence or appearance of a fictional character; it's about the power of belief and unwavering hope in the face of adversity. According to Karen Johnson, Director for the Charles M. Schulz Museum, this core theme is what endears the story to people:

"From a philosophical and emotional point of view, people attach to that and the whole sweetness of it. That's about friendship and loyalty to each other and believing in something bigger than yourself. Those are the universal appeals of it."

The film's origin story, as shared by Jean Schulz, Charles Schulz's wife, reveals that her husband found the idea of a young child mixing up all the fall and winter holidays – Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas – amusing.

She said, "it started with Sparky [her husband's nickname] with his kid thinking going on." But it was the basic story of unwavering hope in the face of adversity that became the most important aspect of the movie.

Schulz believed in highlighting the notion that things don't always go as planned, but one must endure and keep going. Lee Mendelson, Schulz's professional partner, explains, "You don't always get what you want or dream about, but you endure. You keep going, and you don't give up. Which is the point of Linus saying, 'He'll be here next year.'"

It's The Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown made its debut on October 27, 1966, and half the nation tuned in to watch it on the night of its first airing. It went on to receive three Emmy award nominations in 1967, and became an instant classic.

Board of Directors Message

OCTOBER 2024

Hello Sundance Residents,

We can happily say we are getting to welcome back some of our northern residents and also welcoming new ones to the park.

Remember the threat of hurricanes is still with us for another month or so. Please stay vigilant and, if you haven't already, get stocked up on storm supplies

We have several events coming up in October. Of course, the monthly Agenda Meeting on the 1st @at 6:30pm with 2Fers the following Tuesday, the 8th at 5pm, the HOA Meeting will follow at 6:30pm. The Vendor Fair is on the 22nd, Ice Cream social on the 21st, and a Halloween Party on the 26th from 7-10pm. And, don't forget Movie Nights, check your calendar for those dates.

For your convenience, copies of the Calendar are now being made available at the Mail Boxes, in the Library, and the Office.

If you have not heard our Resident Potluck is on the 13th from 3pm – 7pm, and is being called Camp Sundance. This should be a lot of fun. If you have not signed up to bring something for this event there is still time, check the bulletin board in the Clubhouse.

The Election of a new Board will be held in January, and we are looking for volunteers to serve on the Nomination Committee for the Election. If you would like to serve, please see any Board Member for information.

Remember, if you have not renewed your membership or joined the HOA, we welcome you to do so. Your support helps us put on events for the community.

The Tie Down program update: the program will resume when the State releases the new funding.

Please check the HOA Website (zephyrhillssundancehoa.org) for the Newsletter, updates, and current events. We look forward to seeing you at Twofers, Board Meetings and upcoming events.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!

Everyone loves to attend and enjoy the events and activities Sundance has to offer. With every special event, and even smaller activities, there are people who do the set up, make sure things run smoothly, and clean up after. Unfortunately, it is usually the same few people.

Sometimes it is moving tables and setting up, decorating, helping serve food, clean-up, and mopping if needed.

Please consider volunteering. We want to continue having great things to do, but some things will need to be cut back or even canceled if there are not volunteers in place to help.

Please let us know how you can help and be a part of the Volunteer Pool by leaving a note in the suggestion box, or contact a Board member.

Your insurance coverage may not result in the best deal!

Shop around for the lowest out-of-pocket cost. Check with your insurance company to see what they'll cover, but don't simply do as they tell you.

Example: A recent patient had a $1,000 insurance benefit with a well-known insurance company, if she went to their provider. Their price was $6,000, so her out-of-pocket cost would have been $5,000. My price was $3,400. She saved $1,600 by shopping for the lowest out-of-pocket cost!

ACCEPTING MOST INSURANCES. ATTENTION: Federal and NY State workers, retirees and spouses. You may qualify for FREE HEARING AIDS. The Empire Plan through United Health Care and several Federal Employee Health Insurance Plans pay the total cost of our most popular hearing aids. NO CO-PAY. NO EXAM FEE. FREE AFTERCARE.
